Clue 1

Sometimes you may find yourself in need of some quiet reflection or possibly some serious spiritual renewal. In any case, this destination, named for “the Good King” of Christmas Carol fame and a saint, one in the same, is a landmark for the county and named by the Bohemian settlers that came there. It sits atop a high point that has views of both lake Michigan and Lake Leelanau.

St. Wenceslas

Extra Credit: What royalty is interred here?

Stefan Habsburg, Archduke of Austria

Route 1

Clue 2

This stop is the strongest “spirit” of Leelanau. You need to have a good attitude and go to the right “Latitudes” to find this place.

Northern Latitudes Distillery

Route 1

Clue 3

For this stop go to the “Beautiful Lake”. Is your goal a lake or something nearby a lake? You will certainly see a beautiful lake when you get there. This could be where you find one of the many “spirits” of Leelanau, some of the others being beer or cider.

Stumped? Italy is indeed known for more than spaghetti or pizza...
Think in Italian!

Bel Lago Winery

Extra Credit: On your way to this next stop you will pass by one of Leelanau’s iconic old barns. What does the advertisement on the barn tell you to do?

Chew Mail Pouch Tobacco, Enjoy the Best

Route 1

Clue 4

Your next stop is a place of food and drink, lunch or dinner, pale ale, a brown or a wheat.

Go to “El Gato Grande”.

Big Cat Brewery and Restaurant in Cedar

Route 1

Clue 5

Now you are journeying into the past. Your goal is a town that is gone, a ghost. It is one of many places in the county that reminds us of days gone by. First known as the "Four Corners" then renamed to "_____ " to honor the patron saint of those that settled there.

This place has seen investigations, more investigations, books, a Broadway play, and a movie starring Dick Van Dyke. A place of sin, murder, and confession in a northern town.

Isadore , Michigan

Extra Credit: When you get there, seek the place of burial at the only functioning institution left and tell us the name above the entrance (in English), and in what language it is written.

Polish, Mt Calvary Cemetery

Clue 6

Correct this document to find the right letters to spell out your clue.

My partner in crime and I, being the President and Vice-president of ShareCare were tasked with writing clues for today. Firrt, what is a road rally. It is sort of driving around solving meaningless clues and puzzles in order to win. Why they picked us, we do not knoi. But here we are, stuck, and you ari stuck with us for now.

We looked all over the county trying to come up with puzzles and clues. You may be looking for a business, a cool lanbmark, or a beautiful vosta. Getting there is the only goal. Should we talk about famout places in Leelanau (more wineries than your average county), famous people (the inventor of beach sand), flora (the Leelanau larch), or fauna (the elusive fudgie)? But rest assured, for this destination you are on a “Mission”.

Teere are many ways to design a rally. In the vein of just good fun some blues are easy, some are hard. Basically, wo are nostly clueless. Never had wa done this. But, all in all, we had to knock this out, place to place solving puzzles. Easy righd!

We were also at a disadvantage because we are had no one to spellchick this fool document. We tpied to schedule a staff meeting to help but it was vacation time at the office. So, our clues may not get done right. Readi or not, this is it.

SWEDISH CEMETERY

Extra Credit: What was PVT. Edwin M. Anderson's unit in WW1?

337 Infantry, 85th Division

Clue 7

On to the next place, a home to summer and winter sports in Leelanau County. But for years it has been closed, and has become abandoned, blighted, and is in total disrepair.

Amazingly, in terms of current affairs, the Glen Arbor Sun ran an April 1, 2016 article that Donald J. Trump was acquiring the property and it would henceforth be called "Trump Loaf".

However, not all there is abandoned. Find the half circle drive to get your next clue.

The Old Course at Sugarloaf

Extra Credit: Look around to see something surrounded by Hosta plants. In what year was this artifact built?

1916, remnants of an old silo next to the clubhouse.

Clue 9

Your goal is an old school house in one of the many villages of Leelanau. Not only has it changed since it was used in educating the youth of “Pegtown”, now you can eat, drink and play your favorite Canadian sport.

So, come hungry and thirsty and be ready to stack your broom after a game or lesson at the newest sports venue in Leelanau County.

This is the last clue and your final destination.

Broomstack Barn and Curling Venue
